Virginia Republicans Asked to Aid in Defeating McLean.

IS HANNA CLOSE-FISTED?

Richmond Republicans Don't Take to the Idea of Contributing to Ohio Fund—About the Richmond-Lancaster Fight—Governor Went Go to Atlanta—No Application for Pardon of Patrick Lynchers.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Richmond, Va., Oct. 18.—The Republicans of this city and other portions of Virginia have just received from W. F.
Burdell, treasurer of the campaign fund of the Ohio Republicans, an urgent letter, asking for funds to aid in defeating John R. McLean.

The letter urges the importance of remitting promptly in order to maintain Republican supremacy in that State.

The Republicans here were agitated at receiving such a request, and take it to mean that Hanna has declined to tap his barrel to any great extent.

The letter is careful to state that it is not instigated by the Federal government, but simply the action of the members of the committee. It is not thought that many Virginia Republicans will respond.

RICHMOND-LANCASTER FIGHT.

Secretary Joe Button was in his office at Democratic headquarters this morning busily engaged in attending to matters that have arisen during his absence.

The Richmond-Lancaster fight presents some rather knotty points, but there will probably be a solution of the matter found that will be satisfactory.

Under the election law candidates must notify clerks of County and Housing Courts to their candidacy twenty days before election. To-day is the last day upon which such notification can be given. From the Richmond-Lancaster district the names of R. Carter Wellford and Thomas H. Pinkard have been sent in. As the State Democratic Committee has decided that no nomination has been made in that district, it will be necessary for a convention to be held, but either Wellford or Pinkard must be the nominee, unless some other name has heretofore been sent in, which is not regarded as likely.

In the event that a convention is held and one of these gentlemen nominated, the other will be expected to drop out.
Some talk has arisen around the State as to the Governor's position regarding the Democratic caucus, which is to elect a Senator.

It is claimed that the majority of the Independents running are Tyler men.
The question asked is: "How can these candidates help the Governor, should they be elected. Under the rules, they cannot participate in the caucus. It is within the bounds of possibility, however, that enough Independents and Republicans may be elected to control the nomination, should they combine with the Governor's friends.

The "Regulars" are asking whether Governor Tyler will pledge himself to go into the caucus and abide by its decision, declining to accept a nomination obtained in any other manner.
The appointment was made today for Hon. C. A. Swanson to address the Democrats of Augusta, at the courthouse on October 23d.

INVITATION DECLINED.

Governor Tyler this morning declined to attend the Dewey celebration in Atlanta on account of the pressure of official business.

THE PATRICK LYNCHERS.

In reference to the Patrick Lynchers, protest against whose pardon has been filed with the Governor, it might be stated that the convicted men have never been transported to the penitentiary and are now confined in Patrick county jail, pending the result of an appeal to a court of higher resort. The Governor has received no petition for the pardon of the men and the action of those persons who oppose pardon in sending in a protest was anticipatory.

HYMENEAL.

Miss Susan Elizabeth Major, daughter of Mrs. Julia Major, and Mr. J. Gordon Christian, son of Judge Isaac Christian, of Charles City, were married at Mount Pleasant Church, Charles City county, to-day.

The bride, who was dressed in a tailor-made suit of brown cloth, came in with her maid of honor, Miss Gertrude Nance, cousin of the bride, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Louis C. Christian, brother of the groom. The ushers were Messrs. Thomas Tignor, Arthur Bauer, Howard Gordon, Charlie Christian, Eddie Mulford, Edmund Waddill, Newton Hubbard and George Major.

While the Lohengrin wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Edwin Nance, the bridesmaids, Miss Mattie Stagg, with Miss Grace Christian, entered one aisle, while Miss Susie Nance, with Miss Arline Ladd, came up the other aisle. Then came Miss Rebecca Marston with Miss Bessie Marston in one aisle, and Miss Electra Nance and Miss Vivian Haxall in the other. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Brown, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. Mr. King, of the Presbyterian Church. The bride and groom were followed to the depot by a large number of friends, and left over the Chesapeake and Ohio for Old Point and an extended tour North.

The groom is the son of Judge Isaac Christian, and is connected with the wholesale notion house of Long & Riddick, of this city. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Julia Major, of Charles City county, and is very pretty and enjoys the acquaintance of a large circle of friends.

SUGAR BEET FACTORY.

Commissioner Kolner left last night for Fredericksburg, where he goes to confer with Mr. Spencer, the Chicagoan, who proposes, in conjunction with others, to establish a sugar beet factory on "Snowden Hill" farm, near Fredericksburg. The Commissioner's conference with Mr. Spencer will be in regard to the establishment of that industry.

PETERSBURG.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS—A BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 18.—The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Virginia Methodist Conference met in its twenty-first annual session in Market-Street Church this morning at half past 9 o'clock, and was opened with devotional services, conducted by the president, Mrs. W. C. Ivey, of Lynchburg, who spoke on "God is Our Refuge."

A solo was next sung by Miss Susie Warwick, of Petersburg. This was followed by an address of welcome by Mrs. W. W. Lear, of Petersburg, and the response was made by Mrs. John T.
Davis, of Accomac.

An address was also made by Mrs.
Ivey, the president, who spoke on the extension of the work. On motion, the following ladies were accorded the privilege of the floor: Mrs. Edward Brown, Mrs. Kellan, Mrs. Boggs, Mrs.
Sue Jones and Mrs. Whitmore. Mrs.
Ivey next made her annual address.
Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Bagby each spoke in favor of the reduction of the salaries of the officers. When this report closed the different committees were appointed.

There are about fifty delegates in attendance.

ZIMMER-MOYLER NUPTIALS.

Miss Mary Howland Zimmer and Mr.
John Moyler were married to-night at 9 o'clock at Grace Episcopal Church, and it was a very brilliant affair. The bridesmaids wore white satin and chiffon, and were Miss Louise Zimmer, sister of the bride; Miss Lucy Cham-berlayne, Miss Sallie Holladay; Miss Ann Maupin Watts, of Portsmouth; Miss Mollie Moyler, sister of the groom; Miss Fannie Spicer, Miss Lelper Venable, Miss Katie Percival, Miss Elsie Harrison; Miss Jean Trigg, of Abingdon, Va. The ushers were Messrs. John Watson, Allie Friend, Wm. Bruce Stevens, Wm. T. Davis, Cameron Dunlop, Hill Beasley, John Spooner Epes, W. Gordon McCabe, Jr., Wm. L. Zimmer, brother of the bride, all of Petersburg; Edward Maupin Watts, of Portsmouth; Willis Culpepper and Claggett Young, of Norfolk; and Lewis W.
Brander and Coleman Worthman, Miss Margaret Norman Zimmer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr.
E. Edward Moyler, of Roanoke, brother of the groom, best man.

The bridesmaid wore white satin and chiffon, and carried bunches of American Beauties. The maid of honor was gowned in white satin, trimmed with chiffon and pearl ornaments, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses.
The bride's gown was white satin Duchess on train, trimmed with embroidered white muslin and lace.

The marriage was followed by a grand reception.

The couple will leave on the 2:30 a.
m. train to-morrow morning for New York.

The bridal presents were very numerous and handsome, and consists largely of solid silverware.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. Wm. L. Zimmer, a prominent tobacco manufacturer here.

The groom is the junior member of the firm of J. E. Moyler & Co., insurance and real estate agents here.

NEWPORT NEWS.

A PLUMBER COMMITS SUICIDE—A SAFE CRACKED.

Newport News, Oct. 18.—Elmer B.
White, of the plumbing firm of Pifer & White, which has been in business for some time on Twenty-eighth street, committed suicide this morning at an early hour by gashing his throat with a knife, and later he fell out of a second story window and received injuries which hastened his death.

Mr. White had been drinking heavily for several days, and last night it is said, he was on the verge of delirium tremens. His friends seem to think that he did the rash deed while in a temporary fit of insanity, and that he would not have tried to kill himself had his mind been clear.

A SAFE CRACKED.

The big iron safe in the office of Harwood & Curtis, feed dealers, was cracked by burglars some time last night, but as far as can be learned the intruders got no booty.

This is the second time the new building of this firm on the railroad near Twenty-eighth street has been entered by burglars in the past month.

The men who did the business last night evidently knew what they were about, and it is believed that they are the same ones who cracked the safe of Frank Dennie, the pawnbroker, but were frightened off before they could open the inner safe door, behind which was $3,000 worth of jewelry and $950 in cash.

Harwood & Curtis' safe was successfully opened last night. The combination handle was pried off, and in the hole was inserted the charge of dynamite, which did the work. There was no money in the safe, and Messrs. Harwood & Curtis have not missed any papers.

To get in the building the burglars prized open the metal fire door and the inner wooden door with a crowbar.

The first time the place was robbed was on the night before the circus, but it is not believed that professionals did this job. The intruders carried off a revolver, several coats, some office fixtures and a lot of postage and revenue stamps, but did not attempt to crack the safe.

CRITTENDENS.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Crittendens, Va., Oct. 18.—Mr. Willie Higgins has returned from a few days' stay in Portsmouth.

Mr. Z. W. Dennis will soon move to his residence, corner of Charlotte and Logan avenues.

Mr. Roger King, who broke his arm Sunday evening while riding a wheel on the wharf, is getting along nicely.

Miss Mollie Matthews has returned from Norfolk, after spending a few days with friends.

Words of Famous Mission Worker.

Mr. John F. Barclay, a well known Atlanta man, suffered from dyspepsia. He says:

"Atlanta, Ga., January 23.—Dr. Chas. O.
Tyner: Having used Tyner's Dyspepsia Remedy for years in my family I gladly admit to what has already been said in its praise. Without exception it is the finest remedy on the market, and nothing would induce me to be without it. JNO. F.

TOWN OF SUFFOLK

Dan Cupid Will Be Exceedingly Active This Fall.

Marriage of Miss Katie Johnson and Mr. E. A. Morrison—Death of Mrs.
Alinda Beamon—The Pennant Market—The Bruce-Corbett Suit.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Suffolk, Va., Oct. 18.—This fall is going to be the most active for many years in matrimonial events. The announcements are coming most every day.

There was a swell church wedding today at Benn's Methodist place, in Isle of Wight county. The principals were Miss Katie Jordan and Mr. E. A. Morrison. Rev. M. S. Colonna was the preacher. Concluding a long honeymoon, which will be spent North, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison will live in Smithfield, where the groom is well known in business and social circles.

The bride went away in a sky blue traveling gown and the groom wore black.

A PREACHER TO WED.

Cards came here to-day telling of Rev. Graham Heath Lambeth's coming marriage to Miss Virginia Murrell, daughter of N. H. Lavinder, of Lynchburg. The ceremony will happen Wednesday, November 1, in the bride's home, at No. 123 Cabell street, at 3 o'clock.

Rev. Lambeth is a grandson of Mrs.
Jesse Parker, of Suffolk. He formerly lived here. He is now a member of the Virginia Methodist Conference.

A SUFFOLK EVENT.

Invitations have been printed announcing the union of Miss Janet Alexander, daughter of Mrs. W. T. Withers, to Mr. William Herbert Darden on Wednesday, October 25. The event will be solemnized at 2:45 p. m. at St. Paul's P. E. Church. There will be several attendants.

A BRIDAL TOUR WILL FOLLOW.

A GOOD WOMAN GONE.
Mrs. Alinda Beamon, relict of the late Dr. John R. Beamon, died at 8:30 o'clock this evening, aged 47 years. She had been ill six weeks with fever, which was complicated with appendicitis during the last stages. The death bed was surrounded by nearly every member of the immediate family.

The deceased leaves two children, both grown—Katie and Willie Beamon—a mother and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. W. W. Ballard, Mrs. Kate Brothers, Miss Bessie Nor-fleet, Councilman J. B. and Robert J.
Norfleet. She was married in 1873.

Mrs. Beamon was a consistent member of the Christian Church, a member of the choir and one of the best contralto singers in Suffolk. Dr. Staley said to-night she was the first active member of his choir to die. Mrs. Beamon was a loving mother, a devoted sister, a loyal friend. Her death will be the occasion of genuine sorrow.

THE PEANUT MARKET.

The new peanut crop has been coming in for a few days. The Suffolk Peanut Company to-day quoted new nuts like this: Jumbo fancy, 4½c.; No.
1 fancy, 3½c.; extra, 3c.; No. 1 Virginia shelled, 5c.; No. 2 Virginia shelled, 3c.; extra large Virginia shelled, 6½c. These quotations are subject to 2½ per cent. discount if o. b. Suffolk farmers' grades, 2½c.

The coming of old peanuts has practically ceased. The farmers, factories and jobbers have exhausted their supply. The quality this year is not so good as last. Farmers grades will average only 60 per cent. fancy.
Last year it was about 90.

DAMAGE SUIT.

Circuit Court was occupied all day in hearing the Bruce-Corbett suit. It is a trespass damage suit, in which the verdict will be influenced by the establishment of a doubtful line. The lawyers are Judge R. H. Rawles and R.
W. Withers, for the plaintiff, and E. E.
Holland and Lee Britt for the defendant. The amount involved is about $500.

The plaintiff had finished with sixteen witnesses, and the testimony was begun on the other side, when court adjourned.

BARGAIN AND SALE DEEDS.

J. L. McLemore and L. L. Smith, special commissioners, to Julia C.
Wiggins, 201 acres, partly in Virginia and partly in North Carolina; $1,025.
Julia C. Wiggins and husband to F.
W. Smith, the same property; $1,000.

POLICE COURT.

John Pelt, accused of stealing a gold ring from William Robinson, was in Mayor Brewer's court to-day. Judgment was suspended until to-morrow.

John Riddick Oliver was taxed $3.30 for drinking too much.

PERSONAL TALK.

Colonel R. E. Boykin, of Smithfield, was in Suffolk to-day. He is en route home from Norfolk.

The Literary Club held a pleasant meeting this afternoon.

Samuel Chapman, 25, was to-day married in Suffolk to Olivia Bellamy, 25, colored.

Mr. Floyd Joyner, of Isle of Wight county, was in Suffolk to-day.

Mrs. W. E. Brinkley is visiting friends in Norfolk.

Mrs. H. E. Elam returned to-day

BROTHER MURDERS BROTHER

A HORRIBLE TRAGEDY IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

(By Telegraph to Virginian-Pilot.)

Charleston, S. C., October 18.—N. T.
Pittman, of Gourdins, S. C., was shot and killed at the Hotel Calhoun today by his brother, A. J. Pittman, of Summerville. There had been bad blood between the two men for some time on account of business differences, but efforts had been made to reconcile them.
Both of the brothers are passed middle age, and they are both well known in the section of the State. They met at the hotel by appointment and went into a reading room to talk business. A few minutes later A. J. Pittman began firing at his brother. He shot five times, three bullets taking effect and death being almost instantaneous. He claims to have acted in self-defense, but upon what grounds are not yet known. A.
J. Pittman was arrested and locked up at once, and Coroner Rivers will hold an inquest over the remains of his victim to-morrow. The prisoner appeared perfectly cool, but declined to discuss the tragedy at length.

Dewey's Southern Trip.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Admiral Dewey met the Savannah Reception Committee to-day, but was forced to decline the invitation to visit their city on his trip South. He stated that his Southern trip would necessarily be limited to the visit to Atlanta.
